

CRAFT AREA

WANDERING YARNS

Purbeck Valley Folk festivals very own homegrown crochet workshop returns for another year. Offering grown ups a little oasis of calm and tranquility. Complete beginners and experienced hookers are equally welcome.

POP UP POTTERY WITH MOON STUDIO CERAMICS

Imogen and her team are back with her ever popular workshop. Come and play with clay! Plus this year you can have a go at throwing a pot, great fun and a very rewarding. A tactile experience for all ages and abilities.

FESTIVAL BUNTING

Noel will be welcoming you into her wonderful hand block printing workshop. Come and print your very own bunting, an immersive workshop for all ages. Find Noel in the star tent.

AB FORGE

We are very excited to welcome Alistair to this year's craft area, Alistair is a craftsman working in Corfe. He will not only be offering workshops where you get to hammer hot metal! but he will also be running blacksmithing demonstrations. Due to the nature of the workshops, they are more suited to the grown ups.

PURBECK GREENWOOD CHAIRS

Another local craftsman joining us for the first time. Alec will be running demonstrations throughout the weekend, during which he will produce a special PVFF stool from start to finish. Starting with just a log and an axe, he will work all the components needed right through to weaving the seat. Drop by each day to check out his progress.

WILLOW SCULPTURE

We are absolutely delighted to welcome Jacquie and her team to the craft area. Jacquie will be offering you guidance on the skills and techniques required to produce your own willow masterpiece.

STONE PETS

They proved to be such a massive hit last year that Carly and family are coming back, and we are thrilled. Come and give a plain old stone a fantastical facelift. Using a range of media, sparkles and googly eyes, transform a pebble into a real or imaginary beastie. Or maybe you'd prefer a mandala or a story stone? A creative workshop for any age where imagination can run wild.

FORAGE A HEADRESS

New this year, join the marvellous Julie for a forage around the festival site. Once you've collected your treasure, make your way back to the star tent, where you can fashion your very own festival headdress. Lots of fun, and bonkers creativity for all the family, meet Julie each morning at the star tent for a 10am start.

PAPER HEARTS

Once again this lovely workshop joins us, now a popular and staple of PVFF. Jo will be walking you through the intricate, delicate and very addictive art of origami. A marvellously fascinating workshop for all ages.

TIE DYE BANDANNAS

The marvellous Sam and Chris from Bearcat Collective will be running tie dye workshops on Friday and Saturday in the star tent. Come over and make your own very individual bandanna, or, if you have a boring white cotton tee shirt, they would be delighted to help you get funky with it.
